Dear Parents and Whānau

Senior Exam Students: Please ensure your children are aware of the following:

- The dates and times of their exam sessions
- Exam sessions start at either 9.30am or 2.00pm
- They must bring their Admission Slip to every exam session
- Arrive 20-30 minutes before the exams start
- Students must be in correct uniform, including grooming
- Follow the Exam Centre Manager's instructions to the letter
- Students must read and understand the instructions in the Candidate Information Sheet 2020

Some Senior students have been released in anticipation of passed standards that have yet to be moderated for final confirmation. If standards are not passed, parents / caregivers and students will be emailed to return to school to complete their qualification.

Years 9 and 10 Camps: A reminder to return forms for junior camps. More information is coming out to parents / whānau early next week.

Teacher Only Day: Wednesday 25 November is a Ministry given Teacher Only Day to enable teachers to work through a number of significant changes coming up to NCEA. All secondary schools in the region will be closed for this day. Buses will not run for College students although will continue to run if Primary school students are on the bus.
