Year 9 and 10 Camps

Well done to all of the students who took part in Year 9 or 10 camp. It was a great opportunity to try new experiences, build relationships with fellow students, and take a break from phones for 3 days to make your own fun! We are hearing positive stories from all the camps. Keep an eye on Facebook for more pictures.

School Closedown Period

The designated four week close down period for our teaching staff is 18th December through to the 17th of January. Please don't expect email from our staff within this time period. They are taking a well deserved break.

Final School Invoices

Last night all parents were sent final invoices for accounts owing. Thank you for your support.

The school office is open from Wednesday 22nd January

Merry Christmas everyone and have a wonderful summer holiday.
